

Liz Grade
Operations Coordinator

LIVING AS A
LEADER[®]

Liz's background in hospitality has given her vast experience in working directly with clients and understanding and accommodating their needs. As the Operations Coordinator, she enables the Living As A Leader team to continually focus and clearly communicate with our clients to ensure success. Liz works directly with the Living As A Leader delivery team to provide them the materials they need to successfully facilitate and coach leaders around the country. Liz also manages the operational aspects of our Public Leadership Development Series. She has been instrumental in the upgrade and maintenance of our Leadership Development Series' workshops.
